NORTH DAKOTA HOTELIERS SHARING THEIR HARDSHIP

Heidi Wilcox – Fargo, ND

“As a hotelier in North Dakota I have experienced firsthand the financial impacts with the the recent cancellation of business travel, sporting, entertainment and meeting events in Fargo, Bismarck, and Grand Forks over the next 60 days. The cancellations have resulted in an occupancy drop of over 50%. Available hours for employees were already difficult in these overbuilt markets. Employees and hotel business owners are just as affected as the airline and cruise industry. In North Dakota more so, since these are employees and owners of small businesses.”
