H.R. 748 - Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act Summary

CV-3 * Updated 3/26/2020 *

Title 1. Keeping American worker paid and employed Act: SBA Loan Program

Small Business Loans - $349 Billion

- Allows small businesses, private nonprofits, and public nonprofits to receive SBA 7(a) loans through the end of 2020.
 - The size of the loans would equal 250 percent of an employer's average monthly payroll with a maximum of $10 Million.
- For these new loans, all loan fees are waived, borrowers can defer repayment for up to 12 months, and there are no penalties for prepayment through the end of the year.
- Loans can be used for long-term or short-term working capital; for refinancing; or to cover recurring obligations (including employee salaries, paid leave and group health care benefits, mortgage payments, rent, utilities, and other debt obligations).
- Includes provision that AHLA pushed for which allows Hotels that were operational as of February 15, 2020 to receive financial assistance if the hotel employs not more than 500 employees per physical location and is assigned a North American Industry Classification System code beginning with 72.
- Borrowers can get tax-free debt forgiveness for the portion of the loan used to maintain payroll (not including the cost of any paid leave for which a tax credit is allowed) and pay debt obligations between March 1st and June 30th, 2020, conditional upon their retaining employment and wage levels for employees making less than $33,333 over that period (or less than $100,000 last year).
- Businesses with tipped employees can get debt forgiveness on any additional wages paid to those employees between March 1st and June 30th, 2020.
- Businesses receiving an SBA Covered Loan are not eligible to receive an SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan.
- SBA Express Loans: Increases the maximum loan amount for an SBA Express loan from $350,000 to $1 Million. These loans currently have a much faster approval process through SBA and provide borrowers with revolving lines of credit for working capital purposes.
- Emergency Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL)
 - Businesses affected by COVID-19, with 500 employees or fewer and were in business one-year before COVID-19, are eligible to apply for a loan of no more than $200,000.

Title 2. Assistance for America's workers, Families and Businesses: Expanded Unemployment Insurance, Tax Rebates and Business Tax Provisions

 - Pandemic Unemployment Insurance:

Comprehensive Summary of COVID-19 Congressional Packages

- Reimburse states for the Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (the $600) plus any additional administrative expenses.
- Provide full temporary full funding for the first week of compensable regular unemployment (due to the requirement states waive the one week waiting period).
- Recovery Checks: All U.S. residents with adjusted gross income up to $75,000 ($150,000 married), who are not a dependent of another taxpayer and have a work eligible social security number, are eligible for the full $1,200 ($2,400 married) rebate. In addition, they are eligible for an additional $500 per child.
 - The rebate amount is reduced by $5 for each $100 that a taxpayer's income exceeds the phase-out threshold. The amount is completely phased-out for single filers with incomes exceeding $99,000, $146,500 for head of household filers with one child, and $198,000 for joint filers with no children.
- Business Tax Provisions
 - Employee retention credit for employers subject to closure due to COVID-19: The provision provides a refundable payroll tax credit for 50 percent of wages paid by employers to employees during the COVID-19 crisis. The credit is available to employers whose (1) operations were fully or partially suspended, due to a COVID-19-related shut-down order, or (2) gross receipts declined by more than 50 percent when compared to the same quarter in the prior year.
 - Delay of payment of employer payroll taxes: The provision allows employers and self-employed individuals to defer payment of the employer share of the Social Security tax they otherwise are responsible for paying to the federal government with respect to their employees. Employers generally are responsible for paying a 6.2-percent Social Security tax on employee wages.
 - Modifications for net operating losses: The provision relaxes the limitations on a company's use of losses. Net operating losses (NOL) are currently subject to a taxable-income limitation, and they cannot be carried back to reduce income in a prior tax year. The provision provides that an NOL arising in a tax year beginning in 2018, 2019, or 2020 can be carried back five years. The provision also temporarily removes the taxable income limitation to allow an NOL to fully offset income. These changes will allow companies to utilize losses and amend prior year returns, which will provide critical cash flow and liquidity during the COVID-19 emergency.
 - Modification of limitation on losses for taxpayers other than corporations: The provision modifies the loss limitation applicable to pass-through businesses and sole proprietors, so they can utilize excess business losses and access critical cash flow to maintain operations and payroll for their employees.
 - Modification of limitation on business interest: The provision temporarily increases the amount of interest expense businesses are allowed to deduct on their tax returns, by increasing the 30-percent limitation to 50 percent of taxable income (with adjustments) for 2019 and 2020. As businesses look to weather the storm of the current crisis, this provision will allow them to increase liquidity with a reduced cost of capital.
 - Qualified Improvement Property: The provision enables businesses, especially in the hospitality industry, to write off immediately costs associated with improving facilities instead of having to depreciate those improvements over the 39-year life of the building. The provision, which corrects an error in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, not only increases companies' access to cash flow by allowing them to amend a prior year return, but also incentivizes them to continue to invest in improvements as the country recovers from the COVID-19 emergency.
