

What is it?

The AHLA GM Network serves as the conduit for communication, networking and best practice sharing for property leaders across the country. It is governed by the GM Roundtable, a peer group that functions as an AHLA committee.

Who should join?

The network is open to general managers of hotel properties of all service levels and property types who strive to be a changemaker and help solve issues for the greater hospitality industry.

What do I gain as a member?

GM Network members gain access to exclusive AHLA content and resources such as webinars and best practices. Members also have access to network with AHLA and GM Roundtable leadership to share their opinions and experiences and to gain feedback.

How do I join?

The GM network is free for hotel general managers. Scan the QR code to access the registration form.
