

Hotels and Lodging: Investing in America's Communities

The hotel and lodging industry supports and reinvests in communities around the country. Every year, hotels, inns and bed & breakfasts drive hundreds of billions of tax and tourism dollars to federal, state and local governments and to America's small businesses. In total, guests spend $483 billion at hotels and local businesses annually.

HOTELS GENERATE
$167B

IN FEDERAL, STATE, AND LOCAL TAXES.

Annually, hotels generate $167.2B in federal, state, and local taxes. These funds help maintain roads, schools, police and fire departments and more in the communities that our lodging establishments call home.

EVERY $100 → ADDITIONAL $221

SPENT ON LODGING SPENT IN COMMUNITY

For every $100 hotel guests spend on lodging, they spend another $221 in the destination (recreation, gaming, retail, food and beverage, and transportation).

TOTAL GUEST SPENDING BY LOCATION

$483 BILLION
IN GUEST SPENDING

FOOD AND BEVERAGE

$56B

RECREATION, RETAIL, ETC.

$63B

OFF-SITE TRANSPORTATION

$118B

Hotel guests spend $238 BILLION on transportation, dining, shopping and other activities at local businesses during their stays, in addition to $245 BILLION of guest spending on-site at hotel-industry establishments. In total, guests spend $483 BILLION at hotels and local businesses as a part of their trip.

Source: Bureau of Economic Analysis; Oxford Economics

American Hotel & Lodging Association: All Together Powerful

AMERICAN HOTEL & LODGING ASSOCIATION

1250 I Street, N.W., Suite 1100 Washington, DC | 20005
Tel: (202) 289-3100 | Fax: (202) 289-3199

Katie Longo, Communications: klongo@ahla.com
Jaymes Best, Government Affairs: jbest@ahla.com

WWW.AHLA.COM

