

National Tracking Poll

N Size: 2,200 Adults
Margin of Error: +/- 2%
Topline Report: August 27-29, 2019

SHORT-TERM RENTALS & COMMUNICATIONS DECENCY ACT (CDA)

Question:	Do you agree or disagree with the following statements?	Agree	Disagree	Don't know/ No opinion
Q1.	Airbnb should be accountable for the content on its website and should be required to remove any illegal content, including rental listings.	74%	6%	19%
Q2.	If Airbnb is making a profit from short-term rentals on its site, Airbnb should ensure the owner renting the property is following the local laws and safety requirements.	76%	8%	16%
Q3.	Airbnb should be required to remove rental listings from its website that are classified as illegal or banned by local government laws.	77%	6%	17%

COMMUNICATIONS DECENCY ACT

Question:	Do you agree or disagree with the following statements?	Agree	Disagree	Don't know/ No opinion
Q4.	The Communications Decency Act should be amended to remove potential loopholes, that allow Internet companies to profit off illegal activity on their web sites.	77%	9%	14%
Q5.	The Communications Decency Act should be amended to make it clear that web sites are accountable for removing illegal products or services.	78%	9%	13%
Q6.	The Communications Decency Act should be amended to remove potential loopholes that companies such as Airbnb could use to avoid local laws meant to prevent illegal rentals.	73%	10%	18%
Q7.	Airbnb should not be allowed to use a loophole in the Communications Decency Act, meant to protect freedom of speech, to avoid local laws prohibiting illegal rentals.	68%	11%	21%
Q8.	Short-term rentals are depleting housing options for local residents and increasing the cost to rent or own a home. Short-term rental sites should comply with local laws protecting housing for permanent residents.	67%	14%	19%