

REAL ID HOLIDAY SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDE

The holidays are some of the busiest times for air travel and this time next year could be even more challenging if America isn't REAL ID ready.

Airport security requirements will change on October 1, 2020, requiring all flyers to present a REAL ID or another accepted form of identification to travel within the U.S.

Use these sample social media posts and graphics to reach holiday travelers and their families to make sure everyone is #REALIDready before October 1, 2020.

Find more information and additional resources in the toolkit: ustravel.org/REALIDready

Airport security requirements are changing Oct. 1, 2020, but 57% of Americans are unaware of this deadline. Don't be a part of holiday hassles: make sure you're #REALIDready.

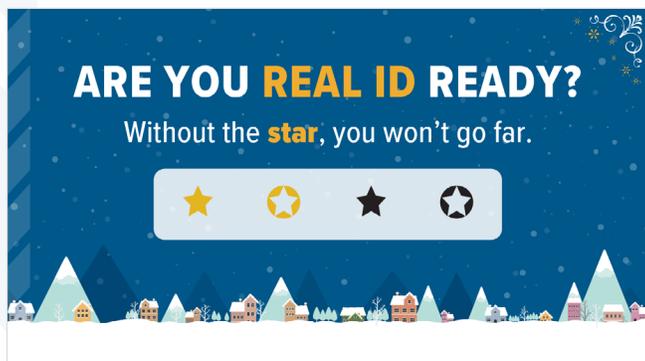

Next year, holidays won't be so happy if you aren't prepared. Starting Oct. 1, 2020 all American travelers will need to be #REALIDready in order to fly within the U.S.

You might have a star on the top of your tree...but do you have a star at the top of your driver's license? Airport security requirements are changing for U.S. flights next October. Make sure you're #REALIDready.

Airport security requirements are changing on Oct. 1, 2020. Don't let your ID prevent you from traveling for the holidays next year. Get #REALIDready today.

REAL ID HOLIDAY SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDE

Holiday travel is the busiest time of the year, often with an occasional headache or hassle. Get ahead of any air travel stress next year by making sure you and your family are #REALIDready.

Packing for a flight? This holiday season you can fly in the U.S. with your regular driver's license—but next fall, security requirements at airports are changing. Get #REALIDready today.

All air travelers will need a REAL ID to fly within the U.S. next holiday season

Airport security changes will be implemented October 1, 2020

Beginning October 1, 2020, there will be new requirements for Americans flying in the U.S. Make sure you're REAL ID ready so you're not left behind. Contact your state DMV for details.

TRAVELING BY AIR?
Without the star, you won't go far.

Get #REALIDready

Beginning October 1, 2020, there will be new requirements for Americans flying in the U.S. Make sure you're REAL ID ready so you're not left behind. Contact your state DMV for details.

This holiday season give the gift of knowledge: starting Oct. 1, 2020 all U.S. travelers will need to be #REALIDready in order to pass through airport security.

Traveling for the holidays? Next year, you won't be able to fly home with just a standard driver's license. Beat the rush and get #REALIDready today.

Learn, prepare, share: get #REALIDready

Starting October 1, 2020
IDs THAT WILL BE ACCEPTED
for flights within the U.S.

- REAL ID-compliant driver's license
- Passport or Passport Card
- U.S. military ID
- DHS Trusted Traveler card (ex. Global Entry, NEXUS, SENTRI, FAST)
- Enhanced Driver's License (MI, MN, NY, VT and WA)

DOWNLOAD ALL SOCIAL GRAPHICS